28 potentially prejudicial to the business or operations of such party.

1           b.       Any party may designate information as "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL 2 ONLY" only if, in the good faith belief of such party and its counsel, the information is among

5           5.       In the event the producing party elects to produce materials for inspection, no
6 marking need be made by the producing party in advance of the initial inspection. For purposes 7 of the initial inspection, all materials produced shall be considered as "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR 8 COUNSEL ONLY," and shall be treated as such pursuant to the terms of this Order. Thereafter, 9 upon selection of specified materials for copying by the inspecting party, the producing party 10 shall, within a reasonable time prior to producing those materials to the inspecting party, mark
11 the copies of those materials that contain Confidential Information with the appropriate 12 confidentiality marking.

13           6.       Whenever a deposition taken on behalf of any party involves a disclosure of 14 Confidential Information of any party:

15           a.       Said deposition or portions thereof shall be designated as 16 containing Confidential Information subject to the provisions of this Order; such designation 17 shall be made on the record whenever possible, but a party may designate portions of depositions 18 as containing Confidential Information after transcription of the proceedings; a party shall have 19 until fifteen (15) days after receipt of the deposition transcript to inform the other party or parties 20 to the action of the portions of the transcript designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or 21 "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY";

22           b.       the disclosing party shall have the right to exclude from 23 attendance at said deposition, during such time as the Confidential Information is to be disclosed, 24 any person other than the deponent, counsel (including their staff and associates), the court 25 reporter, and the person(s) agreed upon pursuant to paragraph 8 below; and

26           c.       the originals of said deposition transcripts and all copies thereof 27 shall bear the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY," as 28 appropriate, and the original or any copy ultimately presented to a court for filing shall not be

1 filed unless it can be accomplished under seal, identified as being subject to this Order, and 2 protected from being opened except by order of this Court.

3 7. All Confidential Information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 4 "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY" shall not be disclosed by the receiving party to 5 anyone other than persons designated herein and shall be handled in the manner set forth below
6 and, in any event, shall not be used for any purpose other than in connection with this litigation, 7 unless and until such designation is removed either by agreement of the parties, or by order of 8 the Court.

9 8. Information designated "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY" shall be 10 viewed only by Counsel (as defined in paragraph 3) of the receiving party, and by independent 11 experts under the conditions set forth in this paragraph. The right of any independent expert to 12 receive any Confidential Information shall be subject to the advance approval of such expert by 13 the producing party or by permission of the Court. The party seeking approval of an independent 14 expert shall provide the producing party with the name and curriculum vitae of the proposed 15 independent expert, and an executed copy of the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, in advance of 16 providing any Confidential Information of the producing party to the expert. Any objection by 17 the producing party to an independent expert receiving Confidential Information must be made 18 in writing within fourteen (14) days following receipt of the identification of the proposed 19 expert. Confidential Information may be disclosed to an independent expert if the fourteen (14)
20 day period has passed and no objection has been made. The approval of independent experts 21 shall not be unreasonably withheld.

22 9. Information designated "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be viewed only by Counsel (as 23 defined in paragraph 3) of the receiving party, by independent experts (pursuant to the terms of 24 paragraph 8), and by the additional individuals listed below, provided each such individual has 25 read this Order in advance of disclosure and has agreed in writing to be bound by its terms:

- 26 (a) Executives who are required to participate in policy decisions with 27 reference to this action;
28

1 (b) technical personnel of the parties with whom Counsel for the parties find it 2 necessary to consult, in the discretion of such counsel, in preparation for 3 trial of this action; and

4 (c) stenographic and clerical employees associated with the individuals 5 identified above.

6 10. With respect to material designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL –
7 FOR COUNSEL ONLY," any person indicated on the face of the document to be its originator, 8 author or a recipient of a copy thereof, may be shown the same.

9 11. All information which has been designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 10 "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL ONLY" by the producing or disclosing party, and any 11 and all reproductions thereof, shall be retained in the custody of the Counsel for the receiving 12 party identified in paragraph 3, except that independent experts authorized to view such 13 information under the terms of this Order may retain custody of copies such as are necessary for 14 their participation in this litigation.

15 12. Before any materials produced in discovery, answers to interrogatories, responses 16 to requests for admission, deposition transcripts, or other documents which are designated as 17 Confidential Information are filed with the Court for any purpose, the party seeking to file such 18 material shall seek permission of the Court to file said material under seal. The parties will 19 follow and abide by applicable law with respect to filing documents under seal in this Court.

20 13. The trial transcript(s) shall also be considered CONFIDENTIAL and shall be used 21 solely in this action.

22 14. At any stage of these proceedings, any party may object to a designation of the 23 materials as Confidential Information. The party objecting to confidentiality shall notify, in 24 writing, counsel for the designating party of the objected-to materials and the grounds for the 25 objection. If the dispute is not resolved consensually between the parties within seven (7)
26 business days of receipt of such a notice of objections, the objecting party may move the Court
27 for a ruling on the objection. The materials at issue shall be treated as Confidential Information, 28

1 as designated by the designating party, until the Court has ruled on the objection or the matter
2 has been otherwise resolved.

3 15. All Confidential Information shall be held in confidence by those inspecting or 4 receiving it, and shall be used only for purposes of this action. Counsel for each party, and each 5 person receiving Confidential Information shall take reasonable precautions to prevent the 6 unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure of such information. If Confidential Information is 7 disclosed to any person other than a person authorized by this Order, the party responsible for the 8 unauthorized disclosure must immediately bring all pertinent facts relating to the unauthorized 9 disclosure to the attention of the other parties and, without prejudice to any rights and remedies 10 of the other parties, make every effort to prevent further disclosure by the party and by the 11 person(s) receiving the unauthorized disclosure.

12 16. No party shall be responsible to another party for disclosure of Confidential
13 Information under this Order if the information in question is not labeled or otherwise identified 14 as such in accordance with this Order.

15 17. If a party, through inadvertence, produces any Confidential Information without 16 labeling or marking or otherwise designating it as such in accordance with this Order, the 17 designating party may give written notice to the receiving party that the document or thing 18 produced is deemed Confidential Information, and that the document or thing produced should 19 be treated as such in accordance with that designation under this Order. The receiving party 20 must treat the materials as confidential, once the designating party so notifies the receiving party.
21 Counsel for the parties shall agree on a mutually acceptable manner of labeling or marking the 22 inadvertently produced materials "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL – FOR COUNSEL 23 ONLY."

24 18. Nothing herein shall prejudice the right of any party to object to the production of 25 any discovery material on the grounds that the material is protected as privileged or as attorney 26 work product.

1           19. Nothing in this Order shall bar counsel from rendering advice to their clients with 2 respect to this litigation and, in the course thereof, relying upon any information designated as 3 Confidential Information, provided that the contents of the information shall not be disclosed.

4           20. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to oppose 5 production of any information for lack of relevance or any other ground other than the mere 6 presence of Confidential Information. The existence of this Order shall not be used by either 7 party as a basis for discovery that is otherwise improper under the Federal Rules of Civil 8 Procedure.

9           21. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent disclosure of Confidential
10 Information if such disclosure is required by law or by order of the Court.

11           22. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this action.
12 Within ninety (90) days after final termination of this action, including any and all appeals, 13 counsel for each party shall, upon request of the producing party, return all Confidential 14 Information to the party that produced the information, including any copies, excerpts, and 15 summaries thereof, or shall destroy same at the option of the receiving party, and shall purge all 16 such information from all machine-readable media on which it resides. Notwithstanding the 17 foregoing, counsel for each party may retain all pleadings, briefs, memoranda, motions, and 18 other documents filed with the Court that refer to or incorporate Confidential Information, and 19 will continue to be bound by this Order with respect to all such retained information. Further, 20 attorney work product materials that contain Confidential Information need not be destroyed, 21 but, if they are not destroyed, the person in possession of the attorney work product will continue
22 to be bound by this Order with respect to all such retained information. Counsel for the parties 23 shall make certification of compliance with the provisions of this paragraph and shall deliver that 24 certification to all parties to this action not more than one-hundred twenty (120) days after the 25 final termination of this action.

26           23. The restrictions and obligations set forth herein shall not apply to any information 27 that: (a) The parties agree should not be designated confidential; (b) the parties agree, or the 28 Court rules, is already public knowledge; (c) the parties agree, or the Court rules, has become

1 public knowledge other than as a result of disclosure by the receiving party, its employees, or its 2 agents in violation of this Order; or (d) has come or shall come into the receiving party's 3 legitimate knowledge independently of the production by the designating party. Prior knowledge 4 must be established by pre-production documentation.

5 24. The restrictions and obligations herein shall not be deemed to prohibit discussions
 6 of any Confidential Information with anyone if that person already has or obtains legitimate 7 possession thereof.

8 25. Transmission by facsimile is acceptable for all notification purposes herein.

9 26. This Order may be modified by agreement of the parties, subject to approval by 10 the Court.

11 27. The Court may modify the terms and conditions of this Order for good cause, or 12 in the interest of justice, or on its own order at any time in these proceedings. The parties prefer 13 that the Court provide them with notice of the Court's intent to modify the Order and the content 14 of those modifications, prior to entry of such an order.

15 28. No items will be filed under seal without a prior application to, and order 16 from, the judge presiding over the hearing or trial. Only when the judge presiding over the 17 hearing or trial permits filing an item or items under seal may confidential material filed 18 with the Court be filed in a sealed envelope or other container marked on the outside with 19 the caption of this action and the following statement:

20 "CONFIDENTIAL-SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER."

21 If any person fails to file protected documents or information under seal, any party to this 22 lawsuit may request that the Court place the filing under seal.

23 Whenever the Court grants a party permission to file an item under seal, a duplicate 24 disclosing all nonconfidential information shall be filed and made part of the public record.
 25 The item may be redacted to eliminate confidential material from the public document.
 26 The public document shall be titled to show that it corresponds to an item filed under seal.
 27 e.g., "Redacted Copy of Sealed Declaration of John Smith in Support of Motion for 28 Summary Judgment." The sealed and redacted documents shall be filed simultaneously.
